

Contract Manufacturing:

Expertise in Complex Sterile Manufacturing

As one of the world's premier pharmaceutical companies, Pfizer is known for the innovation, quality, and diversity of its products. And key to the success of Pfizer CentreSource is a world-class manufacturing network able to efficiently transform your sterile manufacturing project into a finished product – regardless of the size of the batch or the complexity of the process.

Look to Pfizer CentreSource to bring together the extensive expertise and state-of-the-art capabilities required for a range of sterile product types:

- Sterile solutions/suspensions
- Lyophilized product
- Potent product
- Cytotoxic products
- Ampoules
- Blow/fill/seal
- Pre-filled syringes

Our team of sterile manufacturing experts offers you a world of advantages:

- Development- and commercial-scale production capabilities
- Dedicated customer service team
- Full technology transfer, process optimization, and validation
- Access to Pfizer's advanced technology production infrastructure
- Batch production documents
- Scale-up/validation batches
- Packaging specifications
- Material evaluations on raw/packaging materials
- Cleaning procedures and cleaning validations
- Stability testing
- Prepare for FDA pre-approval inspections
- Multi-language and international capabilities
- On-line printing
- On-site quality control laboratories

When you need a consistent, reliable source for sterile manufacturing, contact Pfizer CentreSource. We can help.

The Americas: +1.269.833.5844
Europe/Middle East/Africa: +32.2.749.5502
Asia Pacific: +65.6419.0248 centresource.info@pfizer.com www.pfizercentresource.com

Pfizer CentreSource

Working together for a healthier world™